Empowering Culpeper food distribution planned for June 6th

CULPEPER, Va. – Empowering Culpeper, a volunteer food distribution program of People Incorporated, will hold its next USDA food distribution this Saturday, June 6, 2020 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. EDT at the Culpeper County Sports Complex.

“Empowering Culpeper is committed to providing food for the Culpeper community during this uncertain time,” said program executive Cherry Vanneman. “We will continue to provide food with safety in mind and will follow guidelines set by the governor’s office during each distribution.”

Distributions will continue to be “drive-through” with families asked to remain in their cars. Shuttle buses for recipients who do not have access to transportation are provided by Virginia Regional Transit. The bus will shuttle recipients between the Target bus stop and sports complex.

The Culpeper County Sports Complex is located at 16348 Competition Drive. Cars are instructed to enter the complex from Jonas Road off Rt 666, Greens Corner Road.

Another Empowering Culpeper food distribution will be held Saturday, June 20 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. EDT at the sports complex.
