Next Empowering Culpeper distribution on June 20th

CULPEPER, Va. – People Incorporated’s volunteer food distribution program, Empowering Culpeper, will distribute food to community families this Saturday, June 20, 2020 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. EDT at the Culpeper County Sports Complex.

“We are grateful for the opportunity to serve so many Culpeper families throughout the COVID-19 pandemic response period,” said Cherry Vanneman, an Empowering Culpeper program executive. “We’ve seen the number of families served during this time increase and are happy to do our part to help out.”

Food distributions continue to be conducted via drive-through with community members asked to remain in their cars. Shuttle buses for recipients who do not have access to transportation will be provided by Virginia Regional Transit. Buses will shuttle recipients between the Target bus stop and sports complex.

The Culpeper County Sports Complex is located at 16348 Competition Drive. Cars are instructed to enter the complex from Jonas Road off Rt 666, Greens Corner Road.

Empowering Culpeper will host their following food distribution on July 18, 2020. The distribution will be moved from the sports complex to the parking lot of the Culpeper County High School. Community members should enter the high school parking lot for the July 18th distribution via the Achievement Drive entrance.
